FAMILY PHYSICIANS ENDORSE BAILEY MOSELEY FOR 6th COURT OF APPEALS

AUSTIN – The political advocacy arm of the Texas Academy of Family Physicians, Texas’ largest physician specialty organization, has endorsed Bailey Moseley for Texas’ 6th Court of Appeals.

“Now, perhaps more than ever before, Texas needs qualified individuals serving on the bench who will strictly interpret Texas law,” said Dr. Lloyd Van Winkle, MD TAFPAC Chairman. “Family Physicians are supporting Bailey Moseley for Texas’ 6th Court of Appeal because he will be a compassionate, principled jurist.”

“Bailey Moseley has a long record of public service to the people of Texas,” added Van Winkle. “As small town lawyer and former assistant district attorney in Harrison County, his legal experience far outweighs that of his opponents.”

“We urge the physicians of Texas not only to vote for Bailey Moseley, but also to encourage their friends, neighbors, families, staff, and patients to do likewise.”

The Texas Academy of Family Physicians the state’s largest medical specialty organization representing more than 5,000 family physicians, residents, and medical students, promotes and assures the maintenance of high-quality health care. It provides its members with a unified voice for family medicine and continues to be one of the most patient-oriented, public health-focused organizations in Texas.
